PRICES TO BE REASONABLE

More Time Will Be Allowed on Tickets Than at Any Previous Similar Event.

Arrangements have been made with all the big trunk lines of the country and a majority of their branches, for ten-day reduced rate tickets to Washington for the coming inauguration.

Announcement to this effect was made at inaugural headquarters this afternoon by Ben. L. Prince, chairman of the transportation committee, who has just returned from New York, where he took the matter up with the various railroad heads there.
This means that the visitors may remain in Washington for or five days longer than they ever have been able to in the past.

Will Be Reasonable.

The railroad rates to and from Washington will be reasonable, it was explained. The reduced rates will go into effect on March I, and the tickets will be good until midnight of March This will enable the visitors to to the city than the average person realizes. In the past, the visitors to Washington at inauguration time have been limited too much in the number of days which the railroad spend here.'

Applications for Seats. Applications for seats on the Lafayette Square stand, the choicest of the stands along the inaugural parade route, are coming in to headquarters in large number. These are being filed in the order received, and as soon as a bauerint of the stand is completed, the seats will be checked off.

The applicatins will be received either at inaugural headquarters, or by E. S. Wolfe, in charge of this part of the work.

"Many of the high school cadets have been laboring under the impres-sion that the committee has assessed them a certain sum. This is wrong. It is possible that their instructors have told the cadets that a band must be provided, and that they must pay for this, and for that reason assessments have been made.

"But the inaugural committee has nothing to do with this. So far as we are concerned, it will cost no organization a cent to join in the parade."

The work of organizing a division for the inaugaral parade is under way today. The regular meetings of the inaugural committees will be held at o'clock each Tuesday afternoon.

Bryan, second vice chairman; Mrs. Mary Ford Adams, third vice chairman; Mrs. Anna Booth Stratton, press agent; Mrs. Kate Trenholm Abrahams, secretary; Miss Nora B. Marsh, sergeant at arms: Miss Velma Hitchcock, registrar, and Mrs. Lucy Jones Harris, historian.

The District is represented by Cortesting the most valuable property in that section of the District on both sides of the avenue. The hearing is likely to consume many days of the court's time, as the property holders are represented by a number of counsel, who are vigorously contesting every step. ### REDUCED RAILROAD RATE AIDS EXHIBIT

Big Inaugural Government Display Expected to Attract Additional Spectators.

Announcement by Ben L. Prince chairman of the inaugural transports tion committee, that reduced railroad rates will be in effect for a ten day period from March 1 to March 10 lent added vigor today to the efforts of the committee of the Federation of Citizens' Association in charge of hibit

While the ten-day period does not cover the time proposed for the ex-hibit, February 26 to March 10, it is sufficient, the committee believes, to insure the presence in Washing-ton of visitors who will appreciate the opportunity of seeing "Uncle Sam workshop.

Argument for Extension.

Mr. Prince said today that one of his principal arguments in urging an extension of the reduced rate period was the federation's plans for exhibit. The railroad men with whom he conferred, he said, were a unit in their indorsement of the All of the railroads, it was said will arrange their schedules to allow of a ten days' visit in Washington.

State Societies Meet. A committee of State societies to discuss plans for the exhibit and per manent State exposition will be held in the board' room of the District Building tomorrow night. Nathan B Williams, of the Arkansas Society chairman of the intersociety commitee which is co-operating with the general committee, will preside.

Citizens of States which are not represented in Washington by a so lety are invited to attend. It is Mr Williams' desire to appoint on the ommittee a representative of every State and Territory in the Union.

DRINK HOT TEA FOR A BAD COLD

Get, a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve, and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advt.
